Attorneys for Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant
TESLA, INC.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

TESLA, INC., a Delaware corporation,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MARTIN TRIPP, an individual,

Defendant.

Case No. 3:18-cv-00296-LRH-CBC

PLAINTIFF AND COUNTER-DEFENDANT
TESLA INC.'S RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO DEFENDANT AND
COUNTER-CLAIMANT MARTIN TRIPP'S
THIRD SET OF REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

AND RELATED COUNTERCLAIMS

PROPOUNDING PARTY: Defendant/Counter-Claimant Martin Tripp
RESPONDING PARTY: Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant Tesla, Inc.
SET NO.: Three (Nos. 20-22)

1 Plaintiff and Counter-Defendant Tesla, Inc. ("Tesla"), by and through its undersigned
2 counsel, hereby respectfully submits its responses and objections to Defendant and
3 Counter-Claimant Martin Tripp's ("Tripp") Third Set of Requests for Production of Documents
4 (the "Requests").

5 PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

6 1. Tesla's investigation of the facts and circumstances relating to this action is 7 ongoing. These Responses and Objections ("Responses") are made without prejudice to, and are 8 not a waiver of, Tesla's right to rely on other facts or documents at trial.

9 2. By making the accompanying Responses to Tripp's Requests, Tesla does not waive,
10 and hereby expressly reserves, its right to assert any and all objections as to the admissibility of
11 such responses into evidence in this action, or in any other proceedings, on any and all grounds
12 including, but not limited to, competency, relevancy, materiality, and privilege. Further, Tesla
13 makes the Responses herein without in any way implying that it considers the Requests or 14 Responses thereto to be relevant or material to the subject matter of this action.

15 3. Tesla will produce responsive documents only to the extent that such documents are 16 in the possession, custody, or control of Tesla, as set forth in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
17 Tesla's possession, custody, or control does not include documents with third parties, including 18 related corporate entities.

19 4. Tesla expressly reserves the right to supplement, clarify, revise, or correct any or all
20 of the Responses herein, and to assert additional objections or privileges, in one or more
21 subsequent supplemental Response(s).

22 5. Publicly available documents including, but not limited to, newspaper clippings,
23 court papers, and documents available on the Internet, will not be produced.

24 GENERAL OBJECTIONS

25 1. Each of these General Objections and the foregoing Preliminary Statement is 26 incorporated by reference in each of the specific Responses below as if fully set forth therein. For 27 particular emphasis, one or more of these General Objections and one or more parts of the 28 Preliminary Statement may be reiterated in a specific Response. The absence or inclusion or any

1 reiteration in a specific Response is neither intended as, nor shall be construed as, a limitation or
2 waiver of any general objection or any other specific objection made herein. Tesla reserves the 3 right to make such additional objections as may be appropriate and nothing contained herein shall
4 be in any way construed as a waiver of any such objection.

5         2. Tesla objects to each instruction, definition, and Request to the extent that it
6 purports to impose any requirement or discovery obligation greater than or different from those
7 under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Federal Rules of Evidence, the Local Rules of the 8 District of Nevada, applicable rules and orders of the Court, or any agreement between the parties.

9         3. Tesla objects to the Requests to the extent that they are not reasonably particular as 10 required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(b)(1).

11         4. Tesla objects to each document Request that is overly broad, unduly burdensome,
12 not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, or not proportional to the 13 needs of the case when taking into account the importance of the issues at stake, the amount in 14 controversy, the parties' relative access to relevant information, the parties' resources, the 15 importance of discovery in resolving the issues, and whether the burden or expense of the proposed 16 discovery outweighs its likely benefit.

17         5. Tesla objects to each Request to the extent it seeks documents not in Tesla's
18 custody, possession, or control. Any Response to make documents available does not constitute a
19 representation that any such documents exist or are in the possession, custody, or control of Tesla.

20         6. Tesla objects to each definition, instruction, and Request as overbroad and unduly
21 burdensome to the extent it seeks documents that are readily or more accessible to Tripp from his
22 own documents, the public domain, or sources other than Tesla. Responding to such Requests
23 would be oppressive, unduly burdensome, and unnecessarily expensive, as such documents are 24 equally accessible to Tripp and the burden of responding to such Requests is substantially the same
25 or less for Tripp as for Tesla.

26         7. Tesla objects to the Requests to the extent they seek electronically stored
27 information ("ESI") that is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost.
28

1           8.       By referring to the contents of any documents referred to in a Request, Tesla does
2 not admit their authenticity, relevance, or admissibility at trial, and Tesla reserves the rights to
3 object to the introduction of and/or other use of such documents at trial or any other proceeding.

4           9.       Tesla objects to each definition, instruction, and Request, to the extent that it seeks
5 documents protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, attorney work product
6 doctrine, or any other applicable privileges, protections, or immunities available under the United
7 States Constitution, the Constitution of the State of Nevada, any federal or state statute, or common
8 law. Should any such disclosure by Tesla occur, it is inadvertent and shall not constitute a waiver
9 of any privilege.

10          10.       Tesla objects to each Request to the extent that it expressly or impliedly seeks
11 information that is confidential, personal, or proprietary in nature, or that constitutes protected
12 commercial, financial, and/or trade secret information of Tesla or third parties. Tesla will provide 13 relevant and responsive commercial, financial, or trade secret information only pursuant to the 14 parties' Protective Order under an appropriate designation.

15          11.       Tesla objects to the Requests to the extent they assert legal arguments or 16 characterizations, seek a legal conclusion, or assume the existence of facts that do not exist and the 17 occurrence of events that did not take place. Any response of Tesla to an individual Request is not
18 intended to be, and shall not be construed as, an admission that any factual or legal predicate stated
19 in the Request is accurate.

20          12.       Tesla objects to the definitions of "You," "Your," and "Possession, custody or 21 control" as unduly burdensome, harassing, oppressive, overbroad, and not proportional to the needs
22 of the case to the extent they purport to include entities other than Tesla. For purposes of its 23 responses, Tesla will construe "You" and "Your" to mean only Tesla.

24          13.       Tesla objects to the definition of "Communication(s)" as unduly burdensome,
25 harassing, oppressive, overbroad, and not proportional to the needs of the case.

26          14.       Subject to the Preliminary Statement, the General Objections, and the Objections to 27 Definitions outlined above and the more specific objections set forth below, Tesla responds as 28 follows:

RESPONSES TO REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION*REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 20:

All Documents and Communications transferred, delivered, sent, and/or presented to any law enforcement officer or agency Regarding Martin Tripp, including without limitation a PowerPoint presentation that was delivered at a July 2018 meeting between Tesla's counsel John Hueston and the FBI and/or the Nevada Attorney General.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 20:

In addition to its General Objections, which are incorporated herein by reference, Tesla objects to this Request as unduly burdensome, overbroad, not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, and disproportionate to the needs of this case. Tesla objects to this Request because it seeks documents protected from disclosure by the attorney work product doctrine. Tesla further objects to the extent this Request seeks documents protected by any other applicable privileges, protections, or immunities.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 21:

All Documents and Communications, including reports, e-mails and text messages, obtained or generated in any investigation of Martin Tripp by Tesla, Inc, or Nisos Group, LLC.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 21:

In addition to its General Objections, which are incorporated herein by reference, Tesla objects to this Request as unduly burdensome, overbroad, not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, and disproportionate to the needs of this case. Tesla also objects to this Request to the extent that it seeks discovery of proprietary, confidential, and trade-secret matters not relevant to any claim or defense. Tesla further objects to the extent that this Request seeks documents protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, attorney work product doctrine, or any other applicable privileges, protections, or immunities.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 22:

All Documents and Communication sent and received by You regarding Martin Tripp.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 22:

In addition to its General Objections, which are incorporated herein by reference, Tesla objects to this Request as overbroad and unduly burdensome in that it calls for “all” documents regarding Martin Tripp. Tesla further objects to the extent that this Request seeks information protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, attorney work product doctrine, or any other applicable privileges, protections, or immunities. Tesla further objects to this Request to the extent that it seeks discovery of proprietary, confidential, and trade-secret matters not relevant to any claim or defense.

Subject to and without waiving any of the foregoing objections, Tesla has already produced all non-privileged documents responsive to this Request that are in its possession, custody, or control and that were located through a reasonably diligent search.
